

Ports of Tilbury and Tilbury2 Notice to Mariners – No. 12 of 2024

Reporting of a Near Miss and/or a Safety Observation

To all,

At the Port of Tilbury, safety is our top priority, and we are committed to ensuring a safe working environment for all. In line with this, we would like to remind everyone of the importance of reporting near misses and safety observations.

Identifying potential hazards early is crucial in preventing incidents and/or accidents. Therefore, we encourage all stakeholders to report any near misses or safety-related observations you witness during your time at the Port of Tilbury.

How to Report:

1. SPOT IT: If you witness a near miss or a safety observation, no matter how minor, report it!
2. REPORT IT: Include as much information as possible, such as the location, time, weather, and nature of the near miss or observation & send an email to Harbourmaster@potll.com
3. Prevent IT: Your simple action today, can make the port safer tomorrow.

We value your input, and by reporting near misses or safety observations, you contribute to the continuous improvement of safety at the Port of Tilbury.

Thank you for your cooperation in making the Port of Tilbury a safer place for all.

"Spot It, Report It, Prevent It!"

Simple actions today, a safer port tomorrow.
